

Kindness

Don't be rude, don't be mean,

People really mind,

Don't be cruel, don't be harsh,

Be gentle and be kind.

Someone broke your things,

They might feel a lot of sorrow,

But you don't really care,

You yell like there's no tomorrow.

Your dear little sister,

Wants your last sweet,

Try to be kind,

Just give her as a treat.

Being kind has a reward,
Everyone will love you,
You'll spread happiness,
Believe me it's true.

Whatever you gave,
You'll surely get it back,
That's just the way with kindness,
More kindness it attracts.
